

Brajan Vojinović, Curator

Brajan Vojinović (born in 1999) is an independent curator, art writer, and a founding member of the I:BICA collective. He served as a curator at the esteemed Belgrade gallery X Vitamin for several years, actively participating in multiple international art fairs, orchestrating The First Contemporary Art Auction in Serbia, and collaborating with various artists, galleries, and institutions both in his home country and abroad. From 2021 to 2023, Brajan held the role of program editor and curator at the Cultural Center Dorćol.